WILL COOPER, Cronwell.
JOHN W. M. TAYLOR, McHenry.
JOHN W. MAHMAN, Rockport.
DAVID ROGERS, Buford.
JNO. T. SMITH, Jr., Fordville.
A. S. AULL, Sulphur Springs.
R. P. MAGAN, Magan's.
GEO. M. ROWE, Carlsburg.
DR. G. R. SANDERS, Centerville.
JNO. T. NEAT, Caneyville.
T. J. BUNCH, Morgantown.
W. H. MCNEEL, Beaver Dam.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce Col. Q. C. SHANKS a candidate to represent Ohio county in the next Legislature of Kentucky. Election August 1881.

PERSONAL.

Thos. L. and H. W. Lewis, of Rosine, were in town last Monday.

Frank P. Dittie, of Vine Grove, is visiting friends and relatives in town. Judge George W. Ray, of Owensboro, is in attendance at our court this week.

Mr. Charles Kelly, of Morgantown, is in attendance at Circuit Court this week.

C. J. Yager, editor of the Litchfield Sundayman, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Jennie McClarty, of Owensboro, is visiting the family of Hon. H. D. McHenry.

Our young friend, Lewis Taylor, of Cronwell, was in town Monday and gave us a call.

Judge S. P. Love and daughter, Miss Jennie, are in town, the guest of Prof. Wayland Alexander.

John Layton, of Riley's Station, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hayden, this week.

John A. Kuykendall, of Henderson, was in town Monday. He had the pleasure of a call from him.

Our young friend, W. C. Chapman, Jr., left last Thursday for Cecilia where he will remain for a short time.

Miss Jessie Paxton, of Cronwell, is attending the exercises of Hartford College, the guest of Miss Laura Midkiff.

Robert Whitmore and sister, Miss Nannie, of Livmore, are in attendance at the closing examination of Hartford College this week.

Col. Thos. G. Poore, of Hickman county, candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, was in town last Monday shaking hands with our people.

Our young friend, W. N. Bailey, of Morton's Gap, a former pupil of Hartford College, is attending the closing examination of the school this week.

Judge C. Eaves, Judge S. P. Love, W. A. Wickliffe and Willie Wickliffe, of Greenville, were among those attending the Senatorial convention last Monday.

Dr. H. Baldwin, of Elizabethtown, will visit Hartford on Friday, June 10, 1881, in the practice of his profession, dentistry. He will be accompanied by his daughter, who will visit friends during the doctor's stay here.

David Johnson and Miss Susie Hunter, of Pleasant Ridge, are in attendance at the closing exercises of Hartford College this week. The former is a guest of his sister, Mrs. J. P. Sanderfur, and the latter is a guest of Misses Katie and Annie Hardwick.

Messrs. T. J. Bunch, A. T. Dockery, J. M. Carson, J. T. Moore, H. A. James, W. A. Helm, J. E. Herrell, J. E. Whitaker, P. G. Whitaker, J. McKenney, J. H. Moore, J. W. Martin, V. W. Dewese, E. M. Smith, of Morgantown, W. T. McKenney, Euclid Berry, Logansport, and W. H. Evans and C. G. Guest, of Rochester, were among the delegates at the Senatorial Convention last Monday.

Our young friend Seth McDowell, Esq., of this place, will open a drug store at Owensboro Junction, Muhlenberg county, in a few days. Mr. McDowell has been clerking in the drug store of Messrs. Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. for several years, has read medicine, and is, perhaps, one of the most accurate prescription clerks in the Green River country. He has won the confidence of our people both as a gentleman and good business man.

—For sale, at Thomas Bros.
—Wanted, to buy country bacon, at Thomas Bros.
—Lou Hill is still at the old stand ready to wait on you.
—Go to the Red Front and buy a barrel of that tobacco fertilizer.
—Remember that Lou Hill keeps all the best brands of Kentucky whiskeys.
—R. H. Barnes left at this office last week an egg which is in shape very much like the old-fashioned long-necked squash.

—Member of this department relieved of rheumatism by the use of St. Jacob's Oil, says Geo. W. Walling, Esq., Superintendent Police, New York, in one of our exchanges.—Kansas City Mail.

—Persons contemplating raising tobacco this year will make money by using the tobacco grower. For sale by the barrel or pound at the Red Front.

—Married, at the residence of Benjamin Whitaker, Esq., near Sulphur Springs, May 28, 1881, by Rev. A. S. Kelly, Mr. Leo Medcalf to Miss Mary Whitaker.

—Don't go around with a set of snags in your mouth that would disgrace a western river, and which pollute your breath and murder all enjoyment by their continued aching. Dr. Baldwin, the dentist, will be in Hartford next Friday to remain a week, and he will be pleased to fix your mouth. Call and see him.

—Fresh lemons, at Thomas Bros.
—$25 buys the "Kentucky Bell Churn."

—Big lot of spring chickens, turkeys, etc., at the Red Front.
—Will not be counted out—the "Kentucky Bell Churn."

—Niest and cheapest canned goods in town, at the Red Front.

—Baker's Pain Panacea cures pain in man and beast. For use externally and internally.

—Kendall's Spavin Cure is used from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. Advertisement in another column.

—A gentleman who resides in Ohio county is making as high as $6.00 per day selling the "Kentucky Bell Churn."

—Dr. Roger's Vegetable Worm Syrup instantly destroys worms and removes the secretions which cause them. 9-ly

—When you go to Cronwell stop at Telford & Cooper's hotel. They will treat you right and charge you reasonable.

—All persons knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to call at once and pay their accounts. I need it.

GROSS WILLIAMS.
—Returns are all in and the "Kentucky Bell Churn" is adopted unanimously by a vote of the ladies in every district in Ohio county.

—Dr. Baldwin, dentist, of Elizabethtown, will be in Hartford on Friday, the 10th inst., prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Prices reasonable and satisfaction given.

—Born.—In Hartford, Ky., Wednesday, June 1, 1881, to the wife of Gross B. Williams, a son—Guy. This is their first-born, and the happiness of the father is better imagined than described.

—A lovely being, scarcely formed or moulded, a rose with all its sweet leaves yet ash.

—Andrew Williams and E. R. Ash, by are sole agents for Kentucky for the Harris & Smith Self-extinguishing Non-explosive Safety Lamp. Andrew Williams will canvass the eastern portion of the State. For territory or county rights address them at Hartford, Ky.

—The grandest picnic of the season will be given at Carlsburg on Saturday, June 11, 1881. Speaking by the candidates, music and dancing will be the programme of the day. Come and let's have a day of jollification. G. T. Fields, Granville Brown, James Bullock, Richard Barnes, Elias Bosquet, Managers.

—The finest specimens of wool we have seen were brought to our office by Marion Hatler, of Rosine, last Thursday. It was taken from his flock of Cotswold sheep and each of the four samples measures fifteen inches, and is of a very superior quality. Why is it that men will persist in raising the commonest scrub stock when it costs no more to keep the very best?

—The exhibition at College Hall last Monday night by the pupils of the primary department, under the supervision of Miss Lizzie Morton, teacher, was perfection itself. The crowded condition of our columns prevents us from saying more. Miss Morton and the little midlets deserve much praise; Miss Morton for their admirable training; the pupils themselves for the excellence of their acting.

—The latest man who has been made happy through the use of this valuable liniment is Mr. James A. Conlan, Librarian of the Union Catholic Library, of this city. The following is Mr. Conlan's endorsement: "Union Catholic Library Association, 304 Dearborn Street, Chicago, September 16, 1880. I wish to add my testimony as to the merits of St. Jacob's Oil as a cure for rheumatism. One bottle has cured me of this troublesome disease, which gave me a great deal of bother for a long time, but thanks to the remedy, I am cured. This statement is unhesitatingly by any one in its interest."

JAMES A. CONLAN, Librarian, —Chicago Western Outlook.

—It is not impossible that the noise in which we live, and which many indolent people delight in, as signs of cosmopolitan life, is responsible for much of the headache, paralysis, neuralgia and generally irritability characteristic of modern times. All who are afflicted in this way should go at once and procure a bottle of Crooke's "Never Fail," as it is a sure cure and complete radiator of all such complaints. Sold by the agents, and warranted to give satisfaction in the use of each and every bottle, or the money will be refunded. For sale by Z. W. Griffin and Thomas & Kimbley.

—One evening last week, Miss Ida Medcalf, of Magan neighborhood, left home in company with her uncle, with whom she lives, to spend the night with her sister. They left no one in charge of the house and on their return the next morning found that some scoundrel had entered a window and cut a fine hat belonging to Miss Medcalf to pieces with a knife. The rascal did no other damage nor did he carry off any article so far as known. What his motive could have been in destroying the hat must remain unknown. A young man of the neighborhood is suspected and if the suspicion proves to be well-founded he may look for something to drop.

—An invention which supplies a necessity of every family, simple and cheap enough to buy, must certainly be one of the best investments a man can make, and he who has exclusive control of a territory can but realize large returns upon his investment. This can in our judgment be accomplished in buying territory on the "Kentucky Bell Churn." This churn has been fully tested in every manner by the best ladies of the community, and all recommend it. The gentleman who bought this county (Ohio) is to our knowledge making as high as $6.00 per day selling them. Therefore, as we know it to be a good thing, we advise all who want to make money "quick" and honorable to buy territory. The agent is stopping at the Hartford House, in this place, and will remain for several days. He has a great many county and State rights for sale.

—The Homestead Tobacco Grower has arrived and for sale at the Red Front.

—Have you a lame horse? Call for Kendall's Spavin Cure. Read the advertisement.

—Red Front has the nicest lot of late seed potatoes in town—call and see them.

—For SALE.—A large lot of cut poplar shingles. Apply to James H. Ambrose or W. H. Eldson, Hartford, Ky. 22-2t

—A great deal of local matter, court proceedings, comments upon the convention, etc., are unavoidably crowded out this week.

—Mrs. Sylvester Igichart, Mrs. B. Igichart and Mrs. W. B. Igichart, of Point Pleasant neighborhood, paid us a visit last Friday. Visits from our lady friends are always in order.

—Williams Brothers, in addition to their soda fountain, have erected a lemonade fountain, where those wishing the cooling beverage can have an opportunity to regale themselves.

The medicines of DEXMAY & Co. are unexcelled for elegance, purity, and reliability. Their Seditive Seditive Powders, as pleasant as Lemonade. Their Soft Capsules are world famous. See Advt.

—The Peoples Tobacco Warehouse, 341 Main street Louisville, is the best place to which persons can ship their tobacco. Liberal advances on consignments and several months' storage free of charge, are among the many inducements.

We have much pleasure in recommending Thermane to our readers, as an absolute cure for Malaria. The manufacturers' name alone is a guarantee of its merit. It costs 25 cents per box. For particulars see Advt.

—The Standford hotel, Louisville, holds forth inducements in the way of good fare, close attention to the wants of guests, politeness of waiters, low rates, convenience of location, etc., which no other hotel in the city can present. You have only to try this hotel when you go to the city, to see whereof we speak.

—Three years ago St. Julian, the great California trotter, was unknown; the same may be said of Kendall's Spavin Cure. Now both have a world-wide reputation. Why? Because they both have merit: one as a great trotter; the other as the most successful remedy ever discovered to be used on man or beast. See advertisement.

—I have taken charge of my stable formerly occupied by Henry Field, where I will be found willing and ready to wait upon the traveling public. Prompt attention given to stock left in my care. Give me a call.

CALDER CROW.
—The Claytonian Society of Hartford College have invited the Trustees of Hartford to join the procession to-morrow night and occupy seats on the rostrum at the meeting of the Society to hear the address of Hon. E. C. Hubbard. The invitation has been accepted.

—A little five-year old son of W. B. Tichenor, was drowned on Tuesday last week at Rumsey look on Green river. The little fellow was on the lock watching a passing boat and just as the boat got clear he fell in and the fierce current immediately drew him into the pit and between the gates. Life was extinct before help reached him.

—Dr. M. W. Duvall, living near White Run, has contributed to our museum a hickory walking cane. The cane was made near Richmond, Va., and belonged to Benjamin Duvall, the doctor's grand-father, and is now over 125 years old. Those wishing to see an ancient relic can have an opportunity.

—Kidney-Wort moves the bowels regularly, cleanses the blood, and radically cures kidney disease, gravel, bilious headache, and pains which are caused by disordered liver and kidneys. Thousands have been cured—why should you not try it? Your druggist will tell you that it is one of the most successful medicines ever known. It is sold in both dry and liquid form, and its action is positive and sure in either.—Dallas (Tex.) Herald.

—Never has there been a more delighted set of salesmen than those employed by that grand, reliable concern of J. Winter & Co., corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., and their delight comes from the fact that in men's and boys' clothing no house has such variety, such pretty goods and sells them at such low prices. Their faces just beam with delight when a customer approaches; they seldom fail to sell to him. Have you traded at this house this season?

—Marriage License.
Jo. C. Hale and Sallie A. Crow.

—Wanted.—corn.
The highest market price will be paid for good, sound corn, delivered at the new distillery, in Cronwell, by 23-4t RICE & SCOTT.

—Letter List.
A list of letters remaining in the post office at Hartford, which if not taken out in thirty days will be sent to the dead letter office:

Angie, Sarah, Lowry, J. F.
Boucher, Wm. Murray, Frank.
Bean, William H. May, C. A.
Cuth, John. Miller, George P.
Childers, William. McKernan, Willie.
Claywood, Thos. H. Mann, John.
Denton, Edwin. Ross, (American Theatre).
Graham, John. Stophor, John.
Holcombe, J. H. Williams, Willie P.
King, Benjamin. Williams, E. C.
King, Margaret. Ziegler, James.

—Had a Charming Effect.
MORLEY, Mo., April 1, 1881.

Sir—After my wife had taken one bottle of your Indian Syrup we were absolutely astonished and surprised at the charming effect. I got her the second bottle, which she has taken with great satisfaction. She had been confined to her room for months, not able to do anything. She is now able to do her work, and by taking one more bottle it will effect a permanent cure.

Yours very truly,
T. D. PATTERSON.

Blood and Wool.

Last Saturday evening the negroes of town got on a general spree, and from that into an general melee, in which Sam Pendleton was badly used up by John Hunter, another negro, with a knife and brickbats. The prime cause of the affair was whisky, of which all parties concerned had imbibed freely.

In the beginning of the fray, Hunter imagined that Pendleton had insulted his dusky honor, and concluded to take satisfaction out of his hide. Acting on the impulse of the moment and the suggestion of his villainous nature he stepped behind Pendleton and thrust a knife into his back to the depth of about four inches, the wound running upward and forward, and also another slight cut in the small of the back. Pendleton afterwards told some white boys that he was badly hurt—that some one had struck him in the back with a stick.

A short time afterward Pendleton was standing on the corner opposite James' blacksmith shop when Hunter, who had walked round the square, came down the alley with two or three brickbats in his hand. When about ten feet from Pendleton he let fly one of the brickbats, which took effect on the right side of the chin, breaking the jaw-bone.

A second missile flew wide of its mark, while a third struck the left side of the face, shattering the jaw-bone and making a frightful cut from the ear almost to the point of the chin. An examination was made by Drs. Miller and Baird, and his wounds pronounced to be of a very dangerous character, the knife having entered the upper portion of the lungs.

Hunter left immediately after the affair and has not been heard of at this writing.

COFFMAN—MOSELEY.
Marriage of Mr. J. Taylor Coffman, of Island Station, and Miss Maggie Moseley, of Hartford.

On Wednesday morning, the 1st inst., the residence of Judge R. S. Moseley, was the center of attraction in our little town. The hospitable doors were thrown open to guests invited to witness the union of the fair daughter of the house to Mr. J. Taylor Coffman. The occasion was one of great interest, and parties being well known in the community and the choice of each of them is deservedly applauded. Guite a throng of the parlor at an early hour. All were assured of a hearty "welcome" by the warm reception given by the estimable host and hostess. Prompt to the hour the expectant assembled friends were rewarded by the advent of six little fairies. Misses May Moseley and Lizzie Moore in white tulle over blue silk; Misses Isabel McHenry and Katie Anderson in cream colored satin; Misses Gene Moseley and Sissie Hardwick in airy white muslins; having joined hands they stepped lightly into the parlor, and with angelic grace, bowed and smiled and separated, scattering flowers, standing sufficiently far apart to admit the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed in that easy, impressive manner so characteristic of Dr. W. P. Bennett, prayer by Rev. J. S. McDaniel. Congratulations, heartfelt and sincere, were extended to the happy pair. Breakfast was then announced. The dining hall was especially tastefully decorated with evergreens and sweet bouquets of rare flowers. The arrangement of the tables was superb and such a repast as it was baffles all description. From the first to the very last course everything was delicious. The effect of all this was charming, and together with the sweet fragrance of flowers the remaining few minutes sped on like wings of ethereal lightness, and all with many a deep sigh for the briefness of the hour that the company had to say "good-bye" to the bride who was starting for her new home, taking with her the good wishes of all and quite a number of handsome presents.

—Clouds.
The amateur talent of Hartford, under the direction of Miss Lizzie Box, rendered the popular comedy of "Clouds," at College Hall last Friday night. Everything was gotten up in the most accurate and artistic manner, and especially was this true of the cast of characters, which, as is admitted by every one, could not have been excelled by any stage manager, however conversant with the skill and capabilities of his subordinates.

Miss Maggie King as Stella Gordon displayed a degree of talent rarely possessed by any save professionals, and not always by them even. With a voice as pure and clear as of pearl, together with almost absolutely faultless acting, it is no wonder that she excited the admiration and elicited the applause of the entire audience. No amateur could have done better and we have as yet to see the one who can in any way approach her. "A second Mary Anderson" is the opinion we have heard expressed by various persons who witnessed the superb rendering of Stella Gordon.

Miss Nannie Alexander, in the part of Ella Randall, a girl given to gush, showed up most admirably the girl of the period in her various whims and caprices.

Miss Lilla Baird, as Cora Adair, the ward of Mr. Randall, and a heartless, designing creature, gave the audience a true idea of the woman of the world.

Miss Maggie Craig, as Edna Wimberly, was the very ideal of a rustic beauty. Her "What papa say?" gives us a true insight into her character, though later in life she learns all about the perverse men who vow eternal love.

Miss Lucy Townsend, in Miss Prim, almost led the audience to think they were confronted by an actual old maid, so emphatic was her jerky, snappish language and nervous manner in general.

Miss Alberta Murray, as Mrs. Malvernon, a lady who sympathizes with youthful loves, displayed to perfection the benevolent and match-making tendencies of the character she represented.

Miss Josie Duke, as the help, did all that was required of her in the most creditable manner.

The male characters in the play were Ralph Randall, brother to Ella and husband of Stella Gordon, Mr. Willie Alexander; Fred Towner, a Bohemian artist, Ellis Thomas; Hon. Mr. Randall, father of Ella and Ralph, George Short; Mr. Wimberly, father of Edna, Jared Robinson; Mr. Albany Sedley, Miss Wimberly's lover, B. D. Ringo; Billy Buddies, who prides himself as an "honest man," J. B. Hill; An Esculapian, on the sands of Jersey, Thomas Phillips; Robert, a servant, Willie King.

The play, as a whole, was a brilliant success, and we hope to see it repeated soon.

Wanted.—Distiller.
A man who thoroughly understands making brandy. Must come well recommended. Address, E. H. BRATCHER, Caneyville, Ky.

Genuine Thoroughbreds.
I have fifteen thoroughbred Coldblood buck lambs for sale at $10 each. Call on me at my home in Ohio county, or address me at Paradise, Muhlenberg county.

W. D. COLEMAN.
Farm for Sale.
I offer my farm for sale which lies in Ohio county, on the Cronwell and Paradise road three miles from the latter, consisting of one hundred acres, about sixty acres under good fence and in good state of cultivation, the remainder well timbered. Any one wishing a good farm at a bargain will please call and see me.

G. W. LEACH.
Card of Thanks.
To my friends, Messrs. John R. Collins, James W. Ford, Jerry Williams, E. T. Williams, R. J. Morris, Samuel Bishop, H. B. Kinsolving, Mrs. Irene Cox and her little daughter, Ella, Mrs. Elzel and sister, Misses Lizzie Walker and Lizzie Box, and Judge L. P. Little and Dr. W. B. Armend, of Owensboro, I desire to return my heartfelt thanks for your several beautiful and pleasant presents to me on my nuptial day, and will ever cherish for each of you the fondest recollections.

Very truly,
MAGGIE MOSELEY COFFMAN.
Island Station, Ky., June 2, 1881.

How to Secure Health.
It seems strange that any one who will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when Scovill's Sarsaparilla and Stillinger, or Blood and Liver Syrup, will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing scurvy, syphilis disorders, weakness of the kidneys, erysipelas, malaria; all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, liver, kidneys, stomach, skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health restorer for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. 7-9-ly

Morganfield Doings.

Editor Herald:
The corn crops are looking better now since the wet weather we have had recently. The wheat crops are also looking better. The farmers are all busy now with their work.

Mr. Carson had to print a paper here by the name of the Union Democrat, has moved his press to Corydon, in Henderson county, where he will publish the paper.

Mr. Arthur Hicks has opened up the Chalybeate springs and is ready to receive company at any time.

A boy by the name of Johnnie Below was swimming in the Ohio river at Uniontown about five miles from here, last Monday, when a boat came along and the waves sucked him under and drowned him, his father being in St. Louis at the time. He was not found until about 10 o'clock, when his remains were interred in the graveyard at the chapel about six miles from Uniontown.

Heidi McGuffee, of this place, a boy about ten years old, was in a pond last Sunday with his older brother, neither could swim, and the younger got out in water over ten feet deep and was drowning when his brother, who had been yards to a house where Mr. Daniel lives and one of his sons ran to the pond and saved him.

The ladies of the M. E. Church had a strawberry festival last Saturday for the benefit of their church.

P. L. Ford and family, of this place, will leave for Canada in about two weeks, visiting relatives in Ontario. They will be gone about two months.

Mrs. Geo. Huston, also of this place, last Wednesday evening, to her home in Richmond, Mo., on a visit to relatives, and will visit Kansas City before her return.

Mr. La. Gates, a college chum of S. S. Jackson, spent a week in town. He has gone to Texas.

Some of the natives of Muhlenberg last evening racketed this week. A man named Johnson was accused of whipping his wife. The Echo will tell us all about it. I suppose.

P. L. Ford, of the HERALD's correspondent, I have the nerve to do so, otherwise I would not. I intend to expose every fraud, every imposition and every dead-beat that comes under my notice.

I did not wish to expose Mr. Wilcox but he has opened the ball and will have to take the consequences. Judge Wilcox is anything for popularity. He was a member of the I. O. G. T., but thought the whisky ring was the most popular and as his competitor was a

How to Secure Health.
It seems strange that any one who will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when Scovill's Sarsaparilla and Stillinger, or Blood and Liver Syrup, will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing scurvy, syphilis disorders, weakness of the kidneys, erysipelas, malaria; all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, liver, kidneys, stomach, skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health restorer for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. 7-9-ly
